

From: Vladimir James
To: Microsoft ATR
Date: 11/24/01 4:03am
Subject: Justice and Microsoft

US Justice Department,

It's a pity that DOJ has chosen expedience over justice. The only lesson Microsoft has learned from the whole exercise is that it can flout DOJ decisions and, if fact, any implied monitoring that citizens expect from the DOJ. Because of the precedent set, the situation now is worse than it was before the DOJ became involved.

Shame.

Vladimir James
An American abroad